SAN LEO 2020 MASTER CLASS INTERNATIONAL MUSIC COURSES

RULES

The San Leo 2020 International Music courses, organized by the Town Council, together with “San Leo 2000”, under the artistic direction of Master Stefano Cucci, will be held at the Palazzo Mediceo of San Leo, Rimini (Italy) in July and August 2020.

- 1) The courses are for musicians and singers of any age, from any country.
- 2) The registration will be returned if applications cannot be accepted because there are no places left or if the course is cancelled, but not if the person who has registered will no longer be participating.
- 3) The application forms will be taken into consideration in the order in which they arrive. The number of participants for each course will be decided by the teacher who reserves the right to admit the candidates after receiving their curriculum.
- 4) The timetable of the lessons will be decided by each teacher according to the requirements of each class.
- 5) There will be a piano accompanist and the pieces to be presented are to be indicated on the registration form.
- 6) The participants are required to bring scores and piano reductions of the pieces they will play, their own music stand and concert attire.
- 7) At the end of each course a final concert will be organized in which the students who have been chosen by the teachers will participate.
- 8) Every student will receive a certificate of attendance
- 9) The organization is not responsible for any theft or damage to persons and things that may occur during the whole period of the courses in the areas reserved for lessons, study, rehearsals and concerts.
- 10) For information on the course fees, registration and payment procedures and agreements with restaurants and hotels, please contact the following email address or visit the website.
